CAUSE OF DEATH to be filled in plain terms, so that a layman can understand it. Abbreviations and initials should not be used. Do not report conditions that did not cause death. Do not report merely symptoms of disease. Do not report modes of dying, such as heart failure, asphyxia, anemia, etc., unless they are the only terms which can be used. In deaths from violence, state the nature of injury, as fracture of skull, laceration of brain, etc., and the means of injury, as railway accident, fall, gunshot, etc. State whether accidental, suicidal or homicidal. In deaths of women, always state whether pregnancy existed or childbirth occurred within three months of death. In deaths of children, always state whether full term, premature or prematurely born. In deaths from violence, or suddenly when apparently in health, the jurisdiction of the Coroner must be fully stated. See instructions on back of certificates.
